

TRANSLATION OF EH.459, "HEIM INS REICH!"

(OBVERSE)

HOME TO THE REICH!

Hundreds of thousands of German families this Christmas are longing for the return of fathers, sons, and brothers.

"Home to the Reich!" You have often heard these words on the lips of your Nazi leaders. Their only desire, they swore, was to bring the "unhappy Germans abroad" back into the Reich. It was for this purpose, they told you, that Germany had to go to war.

Today it is the German soldiers who are themselves the "Germans abroad". Like the Wandering Jew, they are hunted by your leaders from country to country. As a result of your leaders' insatiable greed for power, the German soldier must spend his Christmas sad and lonely, far from home, cold-shouldered and hated everywhere.

And it is not only your soldiers who are kept in exile from home and family. Hundreds of thousands of German workers and peasants are being transported like cattle hither and thither. At the whim of the Nazi leaders they are packed off to Poland, Czechoslovakia or Austria; nobody asks them whether they will or no.

When will all these husbands, brothers, and sons return to the Reich? Never, as long as the Nazi regime survives. As long as the "Robber-Order" of Europe persists, it will always have to be imposed by German bayonets and maintained by the toil of today's conscript "Germans abroad". That is why your dear ones must spend this Christmas far away from you. And that is why they will have to remain in distant lands until we have set Europe free.

PEACE ON EARTH

"If only it were over!" The thought of the peace that is to come is the only consolation today for every German. You are praying today for victory over England and her Allies. Not that you would get any satisfaction from further victories; you have had enough already, and you know very well that they bring you no lasting benefit. But you have been told: "Just one more victory" and then at last you will have peace.

But no victory for National Socialist Germany can ever bring you peace. The greed and megalomania of your leaders know no bounds; any new victory would for them be but a prelude to further wars.

There is only one way in which peace can be restored. Only when the masters of the German war machine are got rid of, only then will there be peace on earth again.

That is why England and her Allies are fighting. It is the duty of every German man and woman who truly desires peace on earth to join with us in our fight.

PEACE ON EARTH – IT IS FOR THIS THAT ENGLAND AND HER ALLIES ARE FIGHTING!
